MEMORANDUM FOR: OD/CO

CIA: SE/CPP

SUBJECT: Daily Progress Report for Monday, 20 October 1952

1. BGEIEND - Munich reports that a preliminary interrogation of Mr. Jovan Mema, who wrote from Austria to members of the National Committee for Free Albania stating he had defected from the League of Albanian Refugees in Prisren, Yugoslavia and escaped to Austria, indicates that Mema is sincere and does not represent a Yugoslav attempt to penetrate the NCFA. A thorough interrogation will be made in the hope that Mema is well informed about Yugoslav intentions with regard to Albania as he claims to have been the right-hand man of Dushan Mugosha, one of the Yugoslav leaders of the Yugoslav-sponsored Prisren League. (IN-45908)

Prisren

2. Athens has advised us that a reconnaissance and coup de main operation planned for a two-man Albanian team has been cancelled since confirmed reports have been received that the same operation was successfully mounted by the Yugoslavs in the early summer of 1952.
